

Opportunities Week of 4/21/17

Pre-Law Advising Lecture and Discussion by Dr. Ballan: Dr. Ballan earned his J.D. at Columbia Law School and practiced at the firm of Davis, Polk, & Wardwell LLP before becoming dean of Touro Law in August 2016. Dr. Ballan also holds a doctorate in Music Theory & History from Yale University. Dr. Ballan has taught at Yale, Penn State, Brandeis, Brooklyn Law School, New York University, and Yeshiva University. He has lectured about music and the brain, creativity, decision-making, and, of course, law.

Monday, April 24, 12-2 PM, Wang Center Chapel

See attached flyer for more info

Maryhaven Information Session: Paid Clinical/Non-Clinical Opportunities Offered by Mary Haven Center of Hope/Attend the Event on hired! Paid Part Time and Full-Time Positions in a Clinical Setting offered by Mary Haven! Are you interested in gaining clinical, health care management, and counseling experience and be paid for it? Applying to Medical Schools, PA/Nursing/OT/DPT Programs, Counseling Graduate Schools or Social Work? If so, meet recruiters and find out how to apply and get hired! The employer provides transportation for hires so a car is not required!!!!

Tuesday, April 25th, 4:00PM - 5:00PM, Career Center Workshop Room

Read more and RSVP on Handshake

SOC 302 - What's Going on in America?: What are the most pressing issues facing our country in the Trump era? Take SOC 302 in Summer I and find out. The course will discuss:

What kind of society do we live in, and how does it work?

If we value fairness so highly, why does extreme inequality exist between racial groups and social classes?

If we believe so deeply in democracy, why do so many of us feel alienated from the political system and distrustful of our government?

Using a sociological perspective and drawing on a wide range of sources, students will investigate these contradictions at the heart of American society and come to conclusions about how our society truly works.

For more information contact the instructor, Adam Safer, at adam.safer@stonybrook.edu.

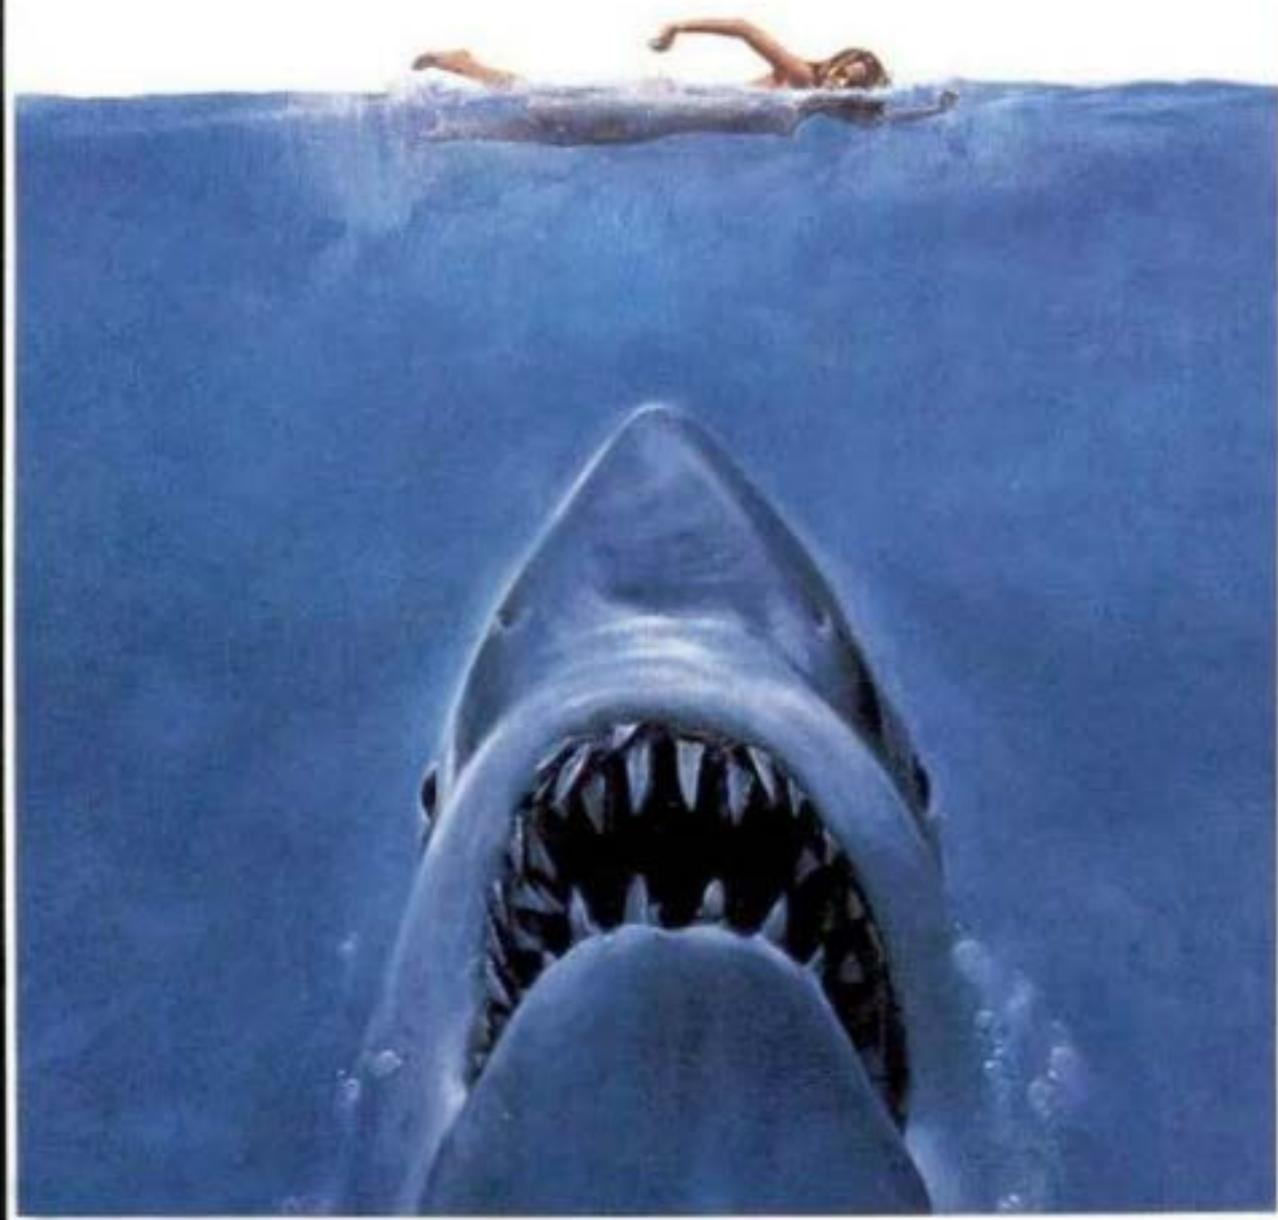

WST 210 Online This Summer: "Contemporary Issues in Women's & Gender Studies" offered in both Session I and II. Fulfills SBS+/DEC F. Elective credit towards the WST major/minor, open to all students!

See attached flyer for more info

A really awesome Summer Session I course from a really awesome department.

WST 210

Gender and Horror Films

Summer Session 1
May 30-July 8

Fulfills
DEC F / SBS+
Requirement

WST

ONLINE
3 Credits

Taught by TARA HOLMES - A WGSS PRODUCTION

Screenplay by ITS AN ONLINE CLASS - Produced by STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY

Spend your summer getting credit for watching horror films and talking about them in relation to representations of gender and sexuality

TECHNICOLOR® PANAVISION®

PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE SUGGESTED
SOME MATERIAL MAY NOT BE SUITABLE FOR PRE-TEENAGERS

ORIGINAL SOUNDTRACK AVAILABLE ON MCA RECORDS & TAPES

...MAY BE TOO INTENSE FOR YOUNGER CHILDREN

MALICE

AFORETHOUGHT:

What was in the mind of the perpetrator when he committed the deeds for which he is on trial? How can we find out? How can we be sure? How does a criminal's state of mind affect his guilt?

These issues are touched upon in ancient scriptures and in some of humanity's greatest works of philosophy and literature.

Judges, attorneys, jury members, and ordinary citizens grapple with questions of responsibility and guilt in cases ranging from ordinary burglary to mass murder, genocide, and war crimes. Sometimes the answers they find have life and death consequences.

This Monday, April 24, from noon to 2:00 PM in the Wang Center Chapel you are invited to spend some time probing questions of intent, crime, and culpability with noted international lawyer Harry Ballan. This lecture is open to all students, faculty, and staff. Seating is limited.

About Harry Ballan: Dr. Ballan is earned his J.D. at Columbia Law School and practiced at the firm of Davis, Polk, & Wardwell LLP before becoming dean of Touro Law in August 2016. Dr. Ballan also holds a doctorate in Music Theory & History from Yale University. Dr. Ballan has taught at Yale, Penn State, Brandeis, Brooklyn Law School, New York University, and Yeshiva University. He has lectured about music and the brain, creativity, decision-making, and, of course, law.

---An event in honor of Yom HaShoah, Holocaust and Heroism Remembrance Day---