

Ludovica Rossi Purini: Born in Rome (Italy), she graduated, summa cum laude, in law from the University of Rome La Sapienza. After practicing the legal profession for a few years at Ferrovie dello Stato S.p.A. (currently Trenitalia) in the legal sector and at the University of L'Aquila, she has devoted herself to the development of cultural and social activities with special focus on the processes of integration of migrants on the Balkan Route and the urbanization of the Roma population.